

Contents

Editors' note	3
The role of the European Union in third-country immigrant integration Georgina Lyes	5
What can the 1985 Soviet film The Most Charming and Attractive tell us about attitudes toward the consumer culture of the late Soviet era? Freya Smart	13
To be or not to be a state? The alignment behaviours of Abkhazia and South Ossetia with Russia Anton Aslund	19
In the shadow of famine: How do Russo-Ukrainian and Russo-Kazakh relations impact memorialisation of the Holodomor and Kazakh famine? Grace Vanderkolk	29
A critical analysis of the European Union's structure and approach to economic recovery during times of crisis Hamish Stayt	43
Putin's retelling of the Great Patriotic War myth and the construction of Russian national identity Alexia Preen	51
Policy brief: Improving teacher qualifications for equitable teacher workforce in Flemish - Belgium education Fasiha Faizi	60
Policy brief: Learning from Italy to promote sustainability education in Hong Kong Lin Lin	67

Policy brief: Polish LGBTQIA+ students at risk: How can schools protect them?	77
Jared Prentis
Policy brief: Addressing Poland's teacher shortage: Are wage increases enough?	85
Blake Ellul-Thorn
Policy brief: Responding to the influx of Ukrainian refugee students in Lesser Poland Voivodeship's education system	91
Kate Weir
Notes on contributors	98