Australian Literature

Special Issue 2008

The Colonial Present

Australian Writing for the 21st Century

Edited by
Gillian Whitlock and Victoria Kuttainen

JASAL is a peer-reviewed journal published online from the website of the National Library of Australia at <http://www.nla.gov.au/openpublish/index.php/jasal> and sent in hard copy to members of the Association for the Study of Australian Literature and institutional subscribers. Membership and subscription information is at <http://asaliterature.com>.

JASAL is published at least once annually, with occasional Special Issues. The editors welcome submissions that consider Australian literature in all its forms and in terms of its socio-political and cultural contexts. We encourage comparative studies with other literatures and are particularly interested in contributions that challenge received critical paradigms and contribute to public debate. Contributors should submit work to the editors online from the JASAL website. Submissions are considered at any time of the year.
