JASAL Journal of the Association for the Study of Australian Literature ISSN 1447–8986
JASAL is a peer-reviewed journal which is published annually by the Association for the Study of Australian Literature. Three copies of unsolicited manuscripts should be submitted to the editors, no longer than 6000 words (excluding Works Cited and Endnotes), documented using MLA style, double-spaced and in hard copy. A style guide is available from the editors or at <asc.uq.edu.au/asal>. Manuscripts are refereed anonymously and should be identified using a separate covering letter. Allow 3 months for consideration. On acceptance the editors will request a disk copy (Word rtf format).

JASAL welcomes any scholarly material with an interest in Australian literature or which might be of interest to people working in this field. We encourage comparative studies with other literatures and forms of representation beyond the literary. We are particularly interested in work which challenges received critical paradigms and which contributes to public debates. JASAL welcomes review articles (up to 4000 words) and responses to previously published material (up to 2000 words).
